Diethyl_Ether Registered: 04-02	Preface: I hope you appreciate how many people have died (Will have died in your time) to obtain these documents so you can save the present (Your future). Ok, so one of my friends apparently had an interesting weekend. He went to a Ween concert with his sister and her friends (Anyone know who the hell Ween is ? Yeah, me neither). Anyways so the concert gets over and he's trying to get out. So he sees this guy with an ultra serious look on his face (Prolly separates him from the cracked out groupies leaving) who has this girl following close by. So this guy does some serious dodging and goes up to my friend and tries to give him this manila folder saying Freaky guy: " Here, take this!" Friend: " Ummm, no." So the guy takes off and just sets this packet on the ground. Curiosity gets the best of my friend so he picks it up and takes it to work the next day. This is how I came into possession of these contents. Note: I am not making this up. Here's all the pretty pics and notes from the folder, numbered by page(Linked for size, for Christ's sake not 56K friendly)

Here's a letter that was on the last page (Typed out for your convenience)

[i] You have been randomly chosen by the Blue Faction to help undermine the future efforts of a corrupted United States Government. It is hoped that by exposing random individuals in the past to these sensitive materials, we can prevent the bloody revolution that put the new government in place, and claimed 87 million American lives. It is important that you know lives were risked, and some lost to place these manuals in the hands of a few random individuals in the past. It is the last hope for personal freedom and basic human rights. You needn't act, however, simply by reading this manual you have helped change the present, your future, but you should know why we must oppose them.

You live in the year 2002. In September of the year 2001, the World Trade Centers in New York City were struck by civilian airliners piloted by Islamic extremists. What you do not know is that right now, in an effort to stop further terrorist, the United States government is pouring enormous amounts of money into an effort to create the very time displacement unit outlined in this stolen manual. The plan was eventually successful. This is why the attacks have not continued. The Sept 11th incident cannot be changed. If it had been, the very team that changed it would not have been formed. But all terrorists activated in the United States after that time were changed. In the year 2008, a liberal president took control of the nation. In an effort to stop crime and terrorism, he banned he civilian use of firearms. He then set out on a mission to restrict personal freedom and take on a mission to take on new American territories in Latin America and the Middle East. The Blue Faction formed to fight this movement, not knowing of the government's ability to manipulate time. The Blue Faction sought to reinstate the Constitution and remove the new regime. The Bloody War that followed claimed 87 million civilian lives. Resistance was pointless; anything we accomplished was changed by the government using the time displacement units. The resistance is now in tatters, and the reach of the New Regime far reaching. This is part of a last ditch effort to preserve the resistance. it is hoped that by planting the seeds of resistance in the past. We can stop the terrible future.

The leader of Blue Faction

Just from memory, TM1M-2005/4005 is a juxapose of TM-2005, which deals with fucking supply and tracking.

I mean, try and pick some TM number that hasn't been used..
